

UTTC Survey Results

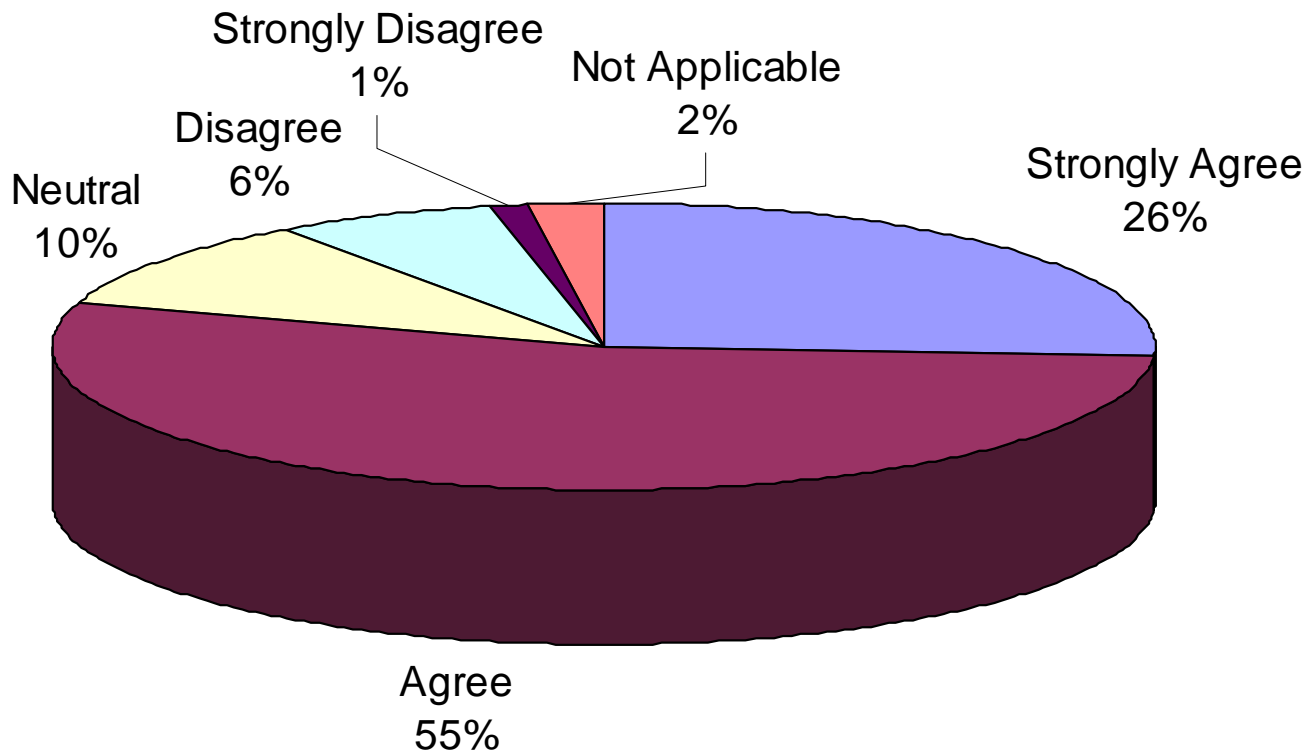

(formerly Post-Course)

Fall 2005

1. I would rate the content of the UT TeleCampus website as informative.

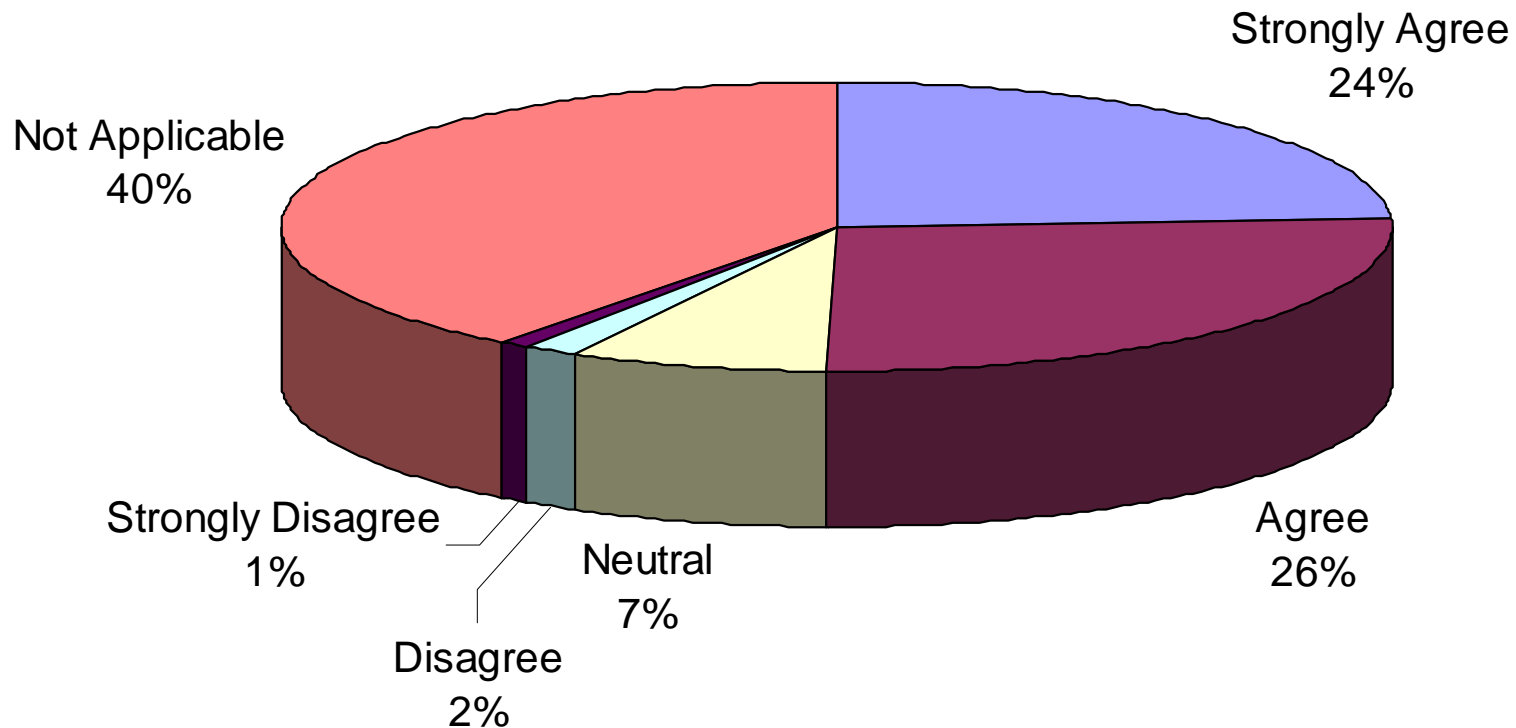

2. I found the information I needed easily (admission links, registration contacts, course access instructions, technical support, etc.) at the UT TeleCampus website.

Fall 2005

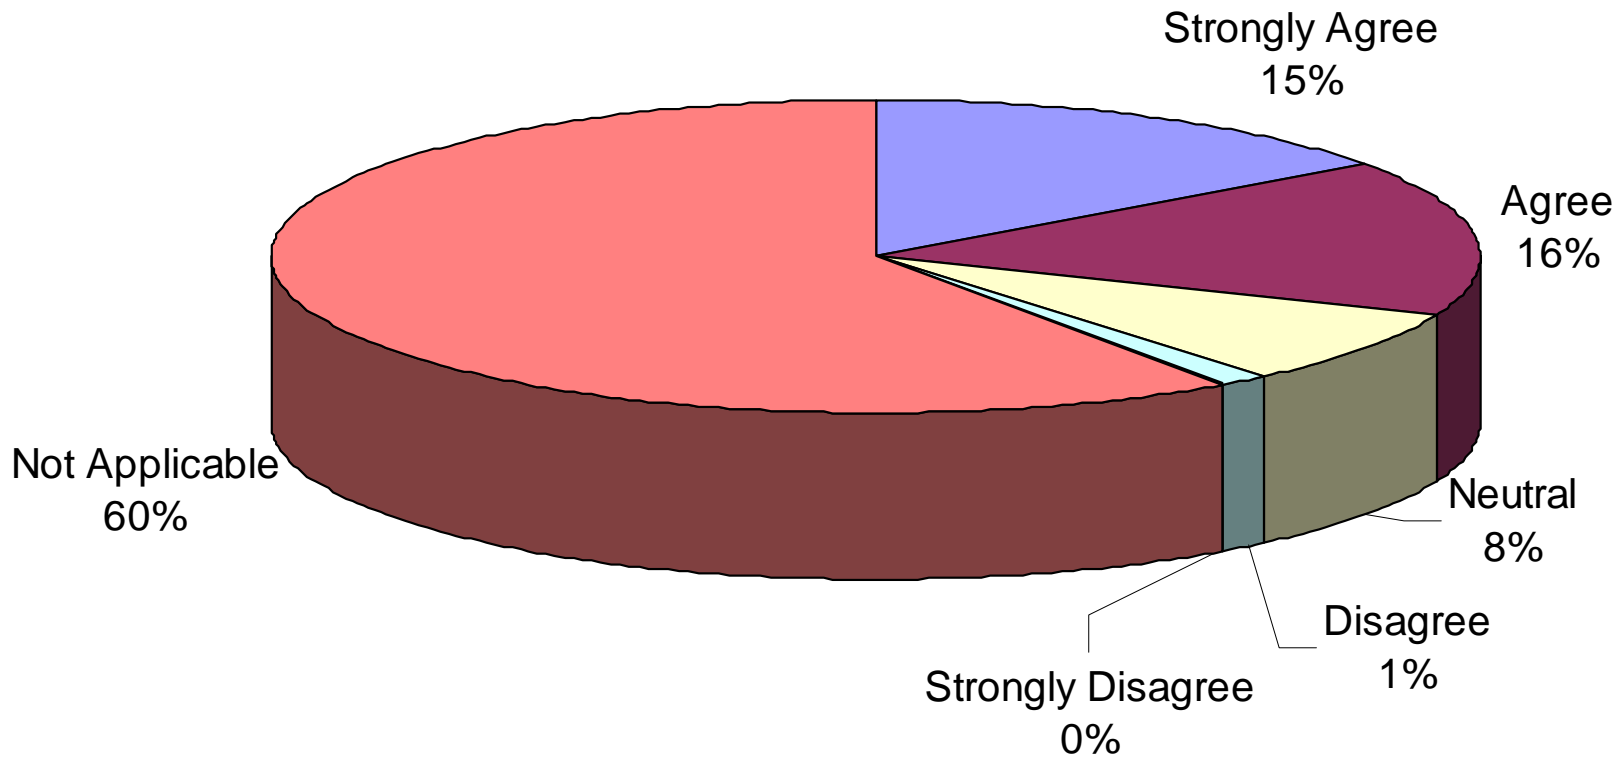

* 376 respondents

3. When I contacted the UT TeleCampus, I found the staff to be helpful.

Fall 2005

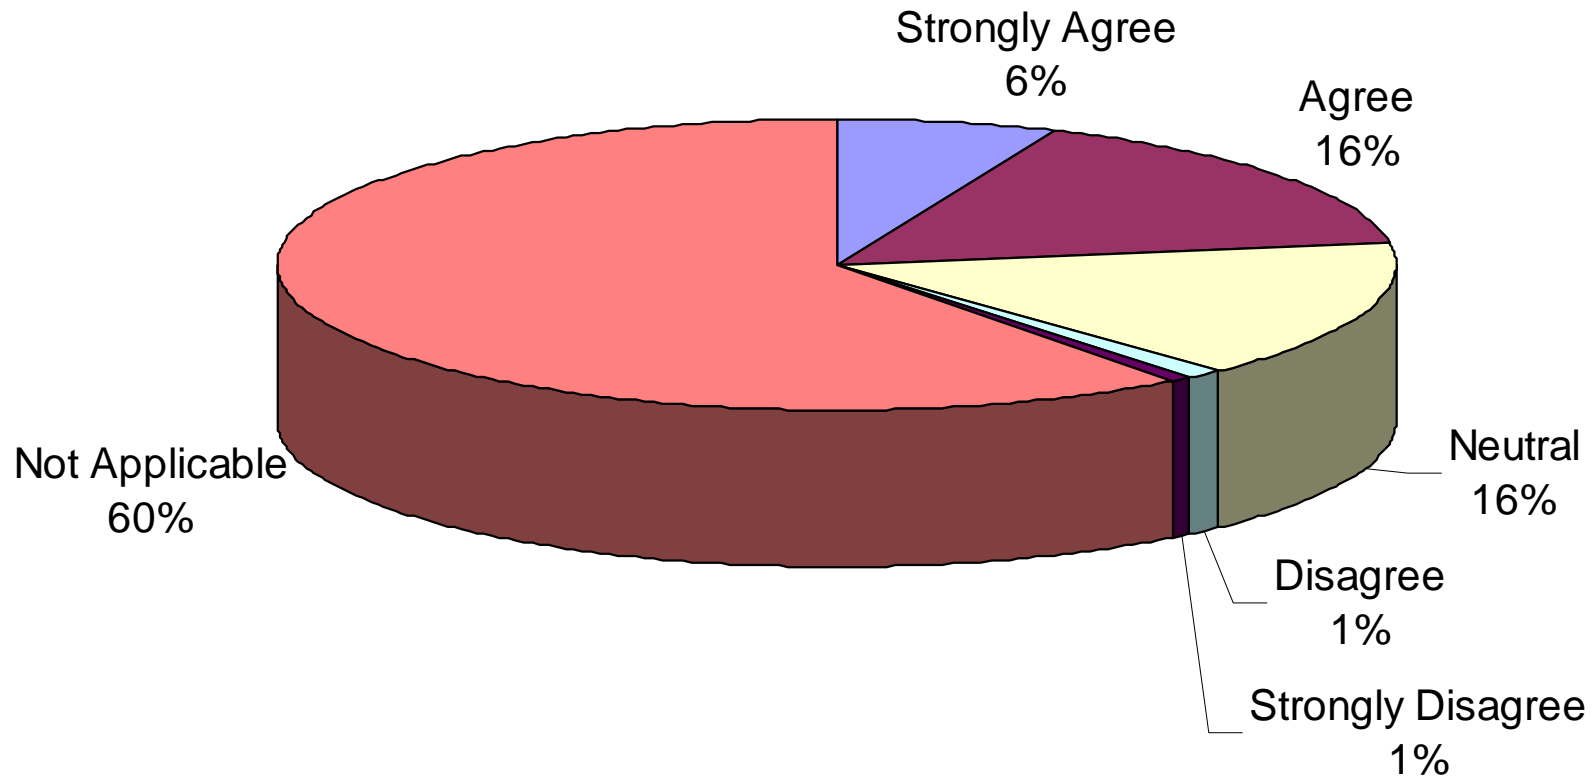

4. When I contact the Help Desk (Embanet) I found the staff to be helpful.

Fall 2005

* 373 respondents

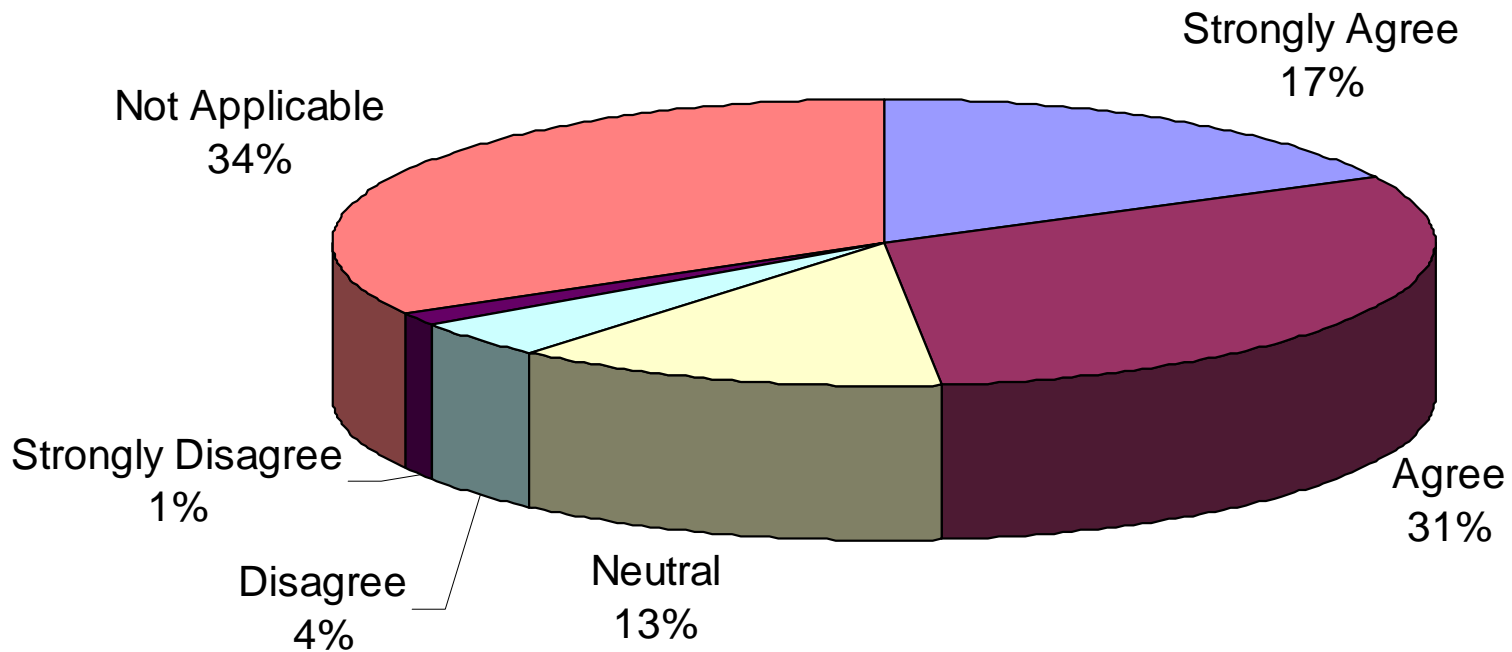

5. The SMARTHINKING academic support met my needs.

Fall 2005

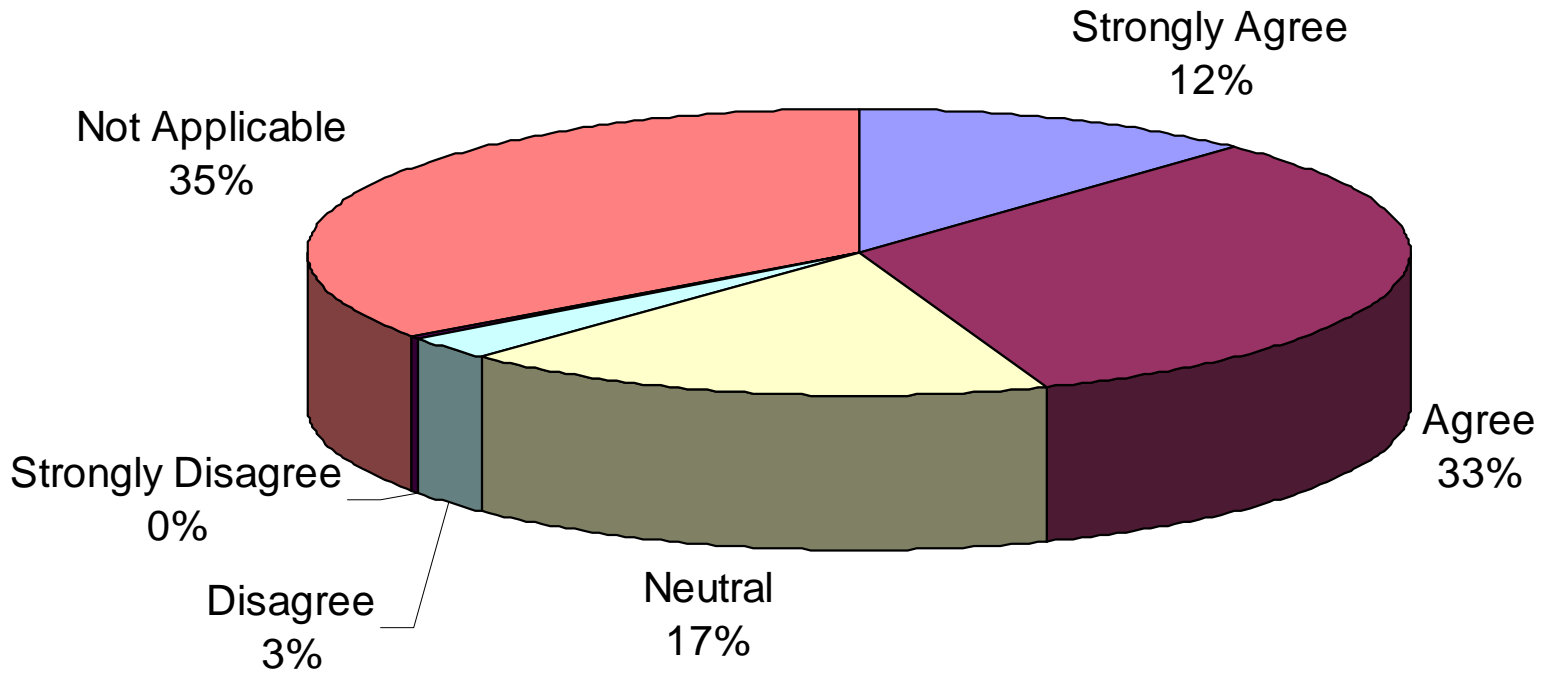

* 374 respondents

6. The UT TeleCampus Digital Library resources and services met my needs.

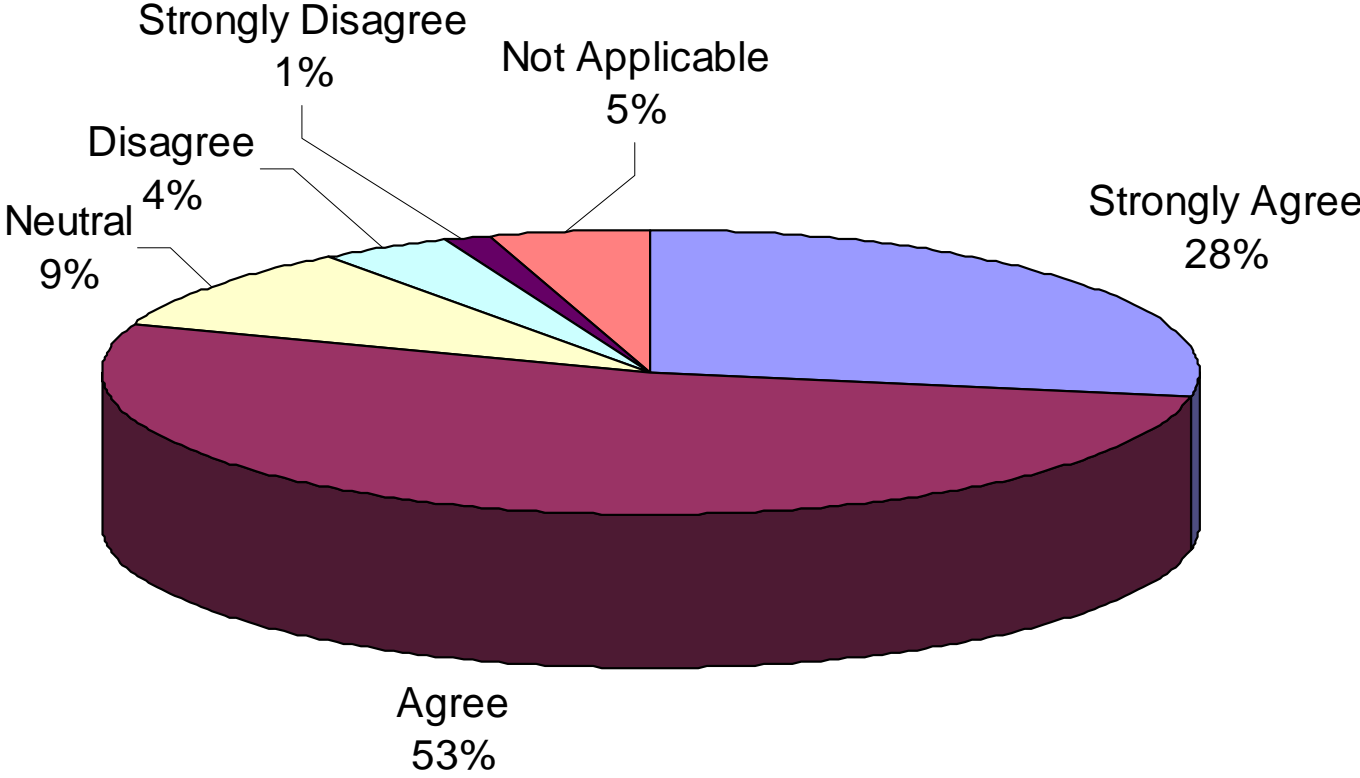

Fall 2005

7. The UT Telecampus Online Student Handbook was helpful.

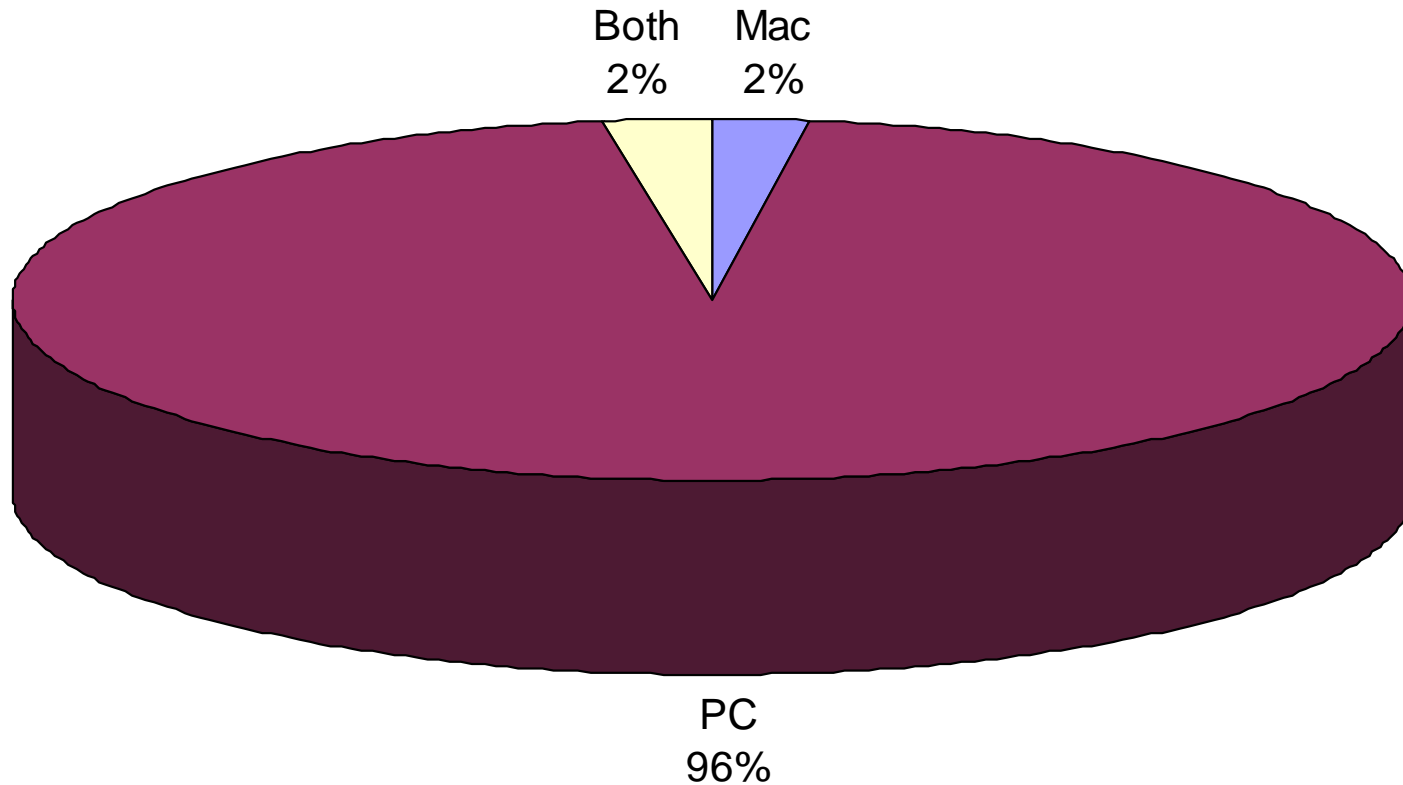

Fall 2005

8. The UT TeleCampus courseware navigation was user-friendly.

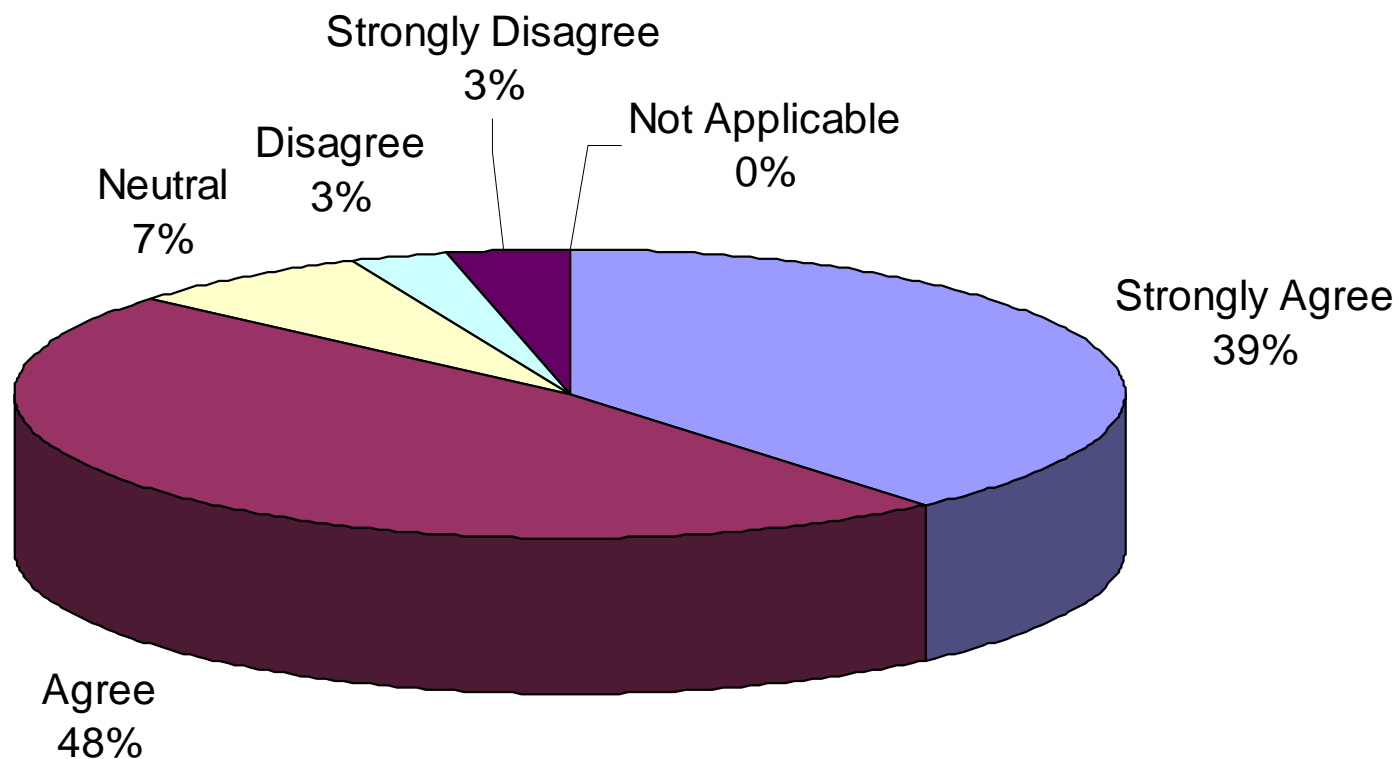

9. Did you access your course(s) using a Mac or PC?

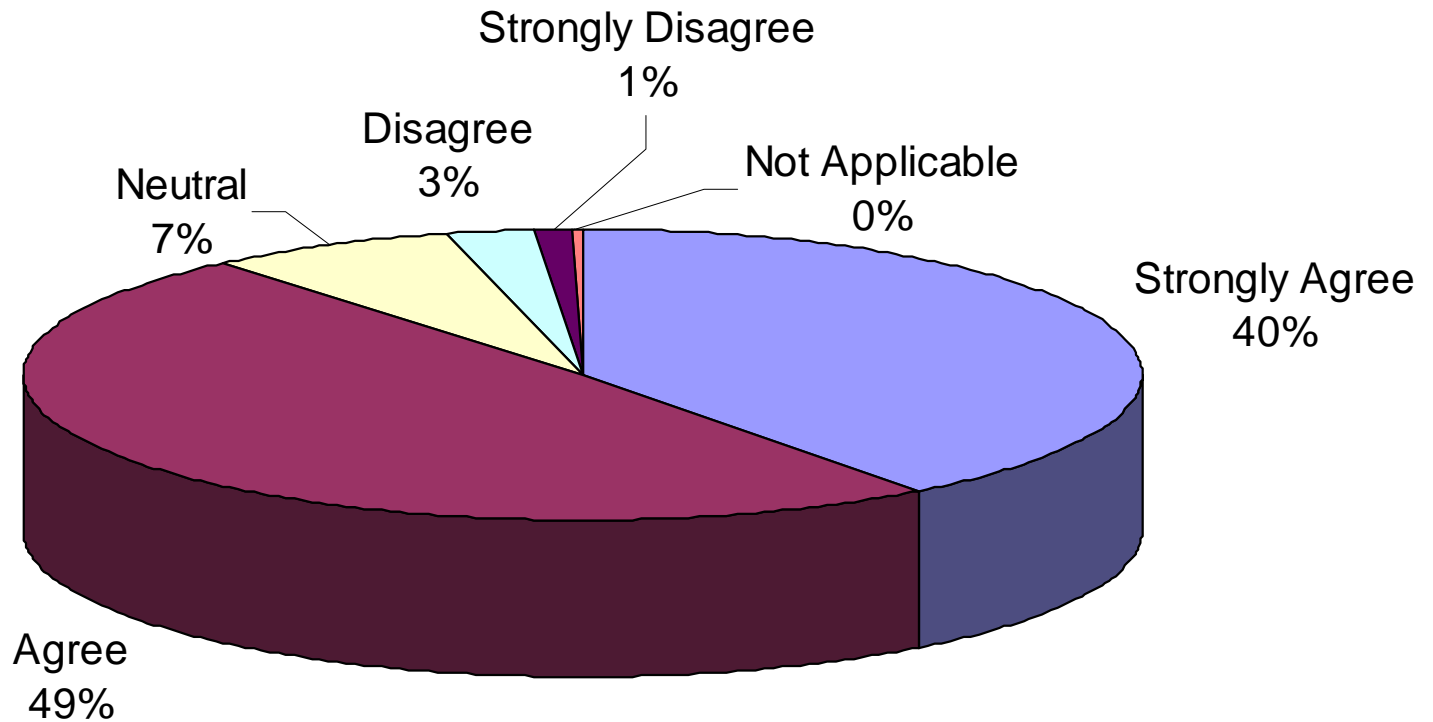

Fall 2005

* 372 respondents

10. My overall experience with online education as the primary delivery mechanism for this course was positive.

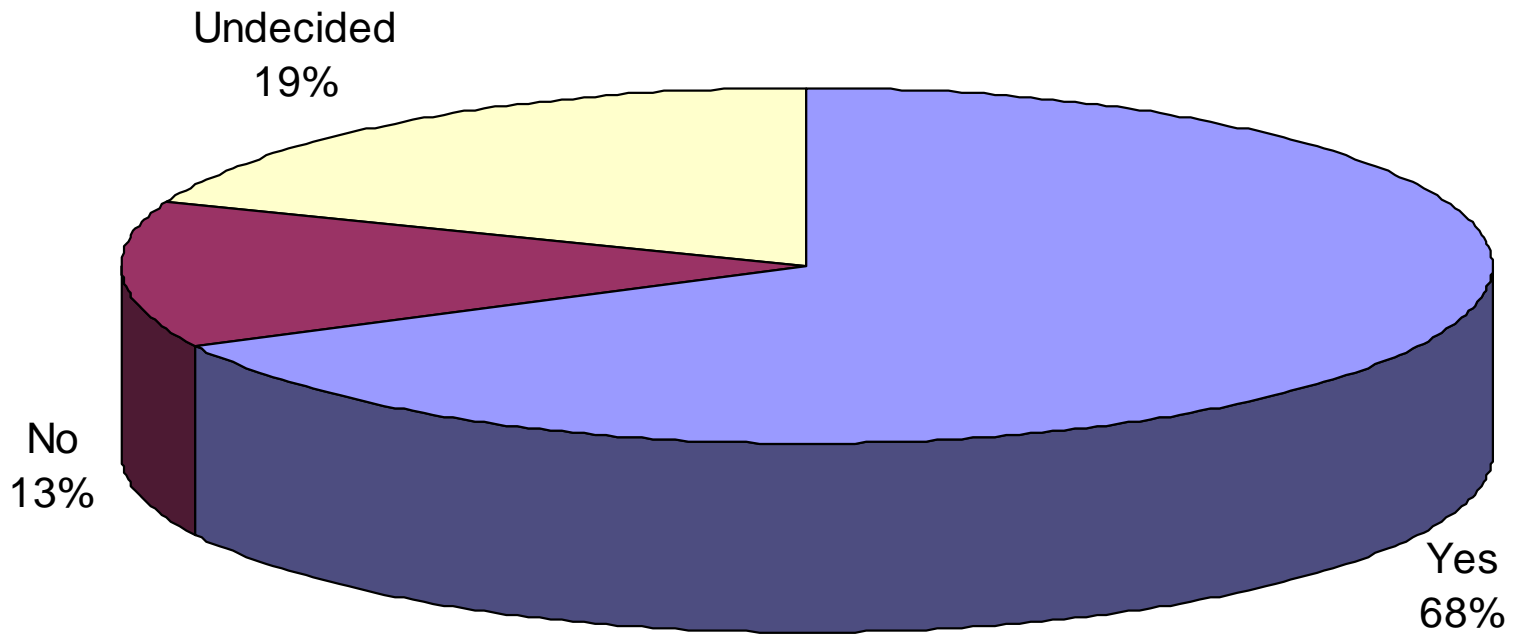

11. My overall experience with the UT TeleCampus was positive.

Fall 2005

* 376 respondents

12. I am planning to enroll in a another UT TeleCampus course.

Fall 2005